

HALLIBURTON

Where is the Love?

Accelerating Local Content in Emerging Markets

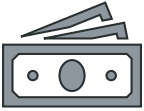

Sana Donald

Business Development Manager, Sub-saharan Africa South

Why Have a Local Content Development Plan?

- Promoting Local Employment

- Encouraging Local Procurement

- Building Local Capacity

- Enhancing Economic Development

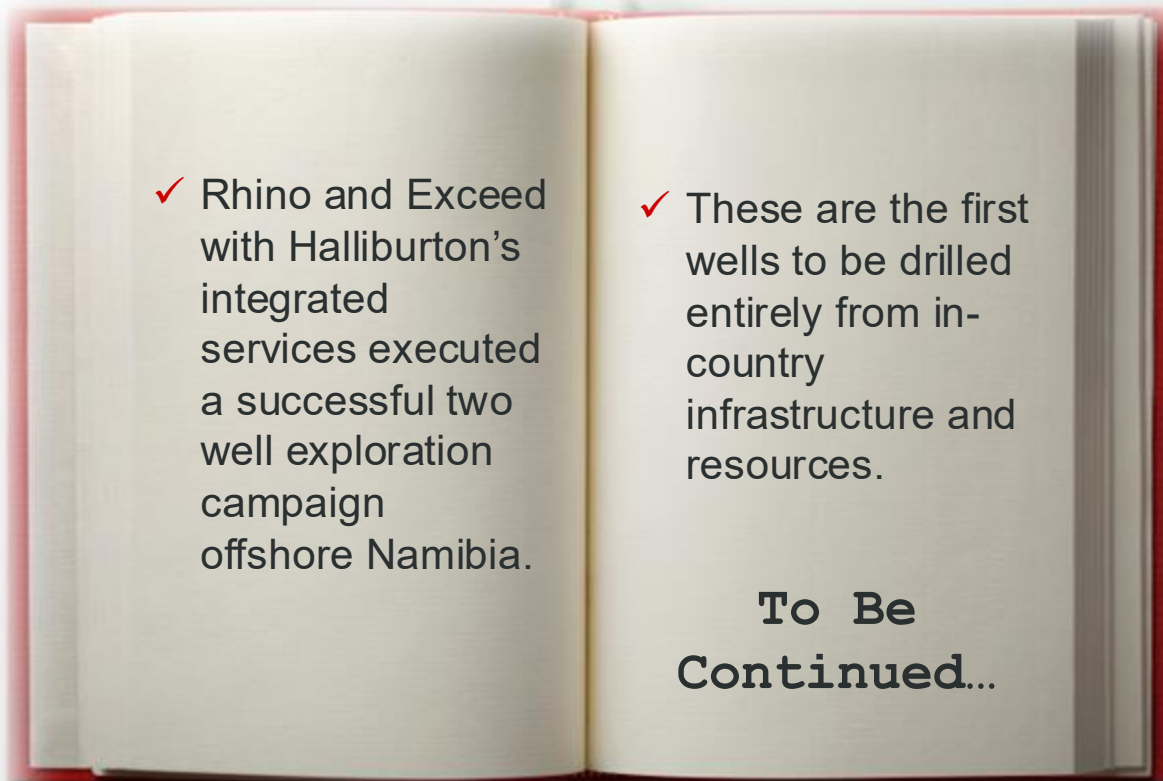

- Track Compliance

- Show the Love

Accelerating Local Content in Emerging Markets

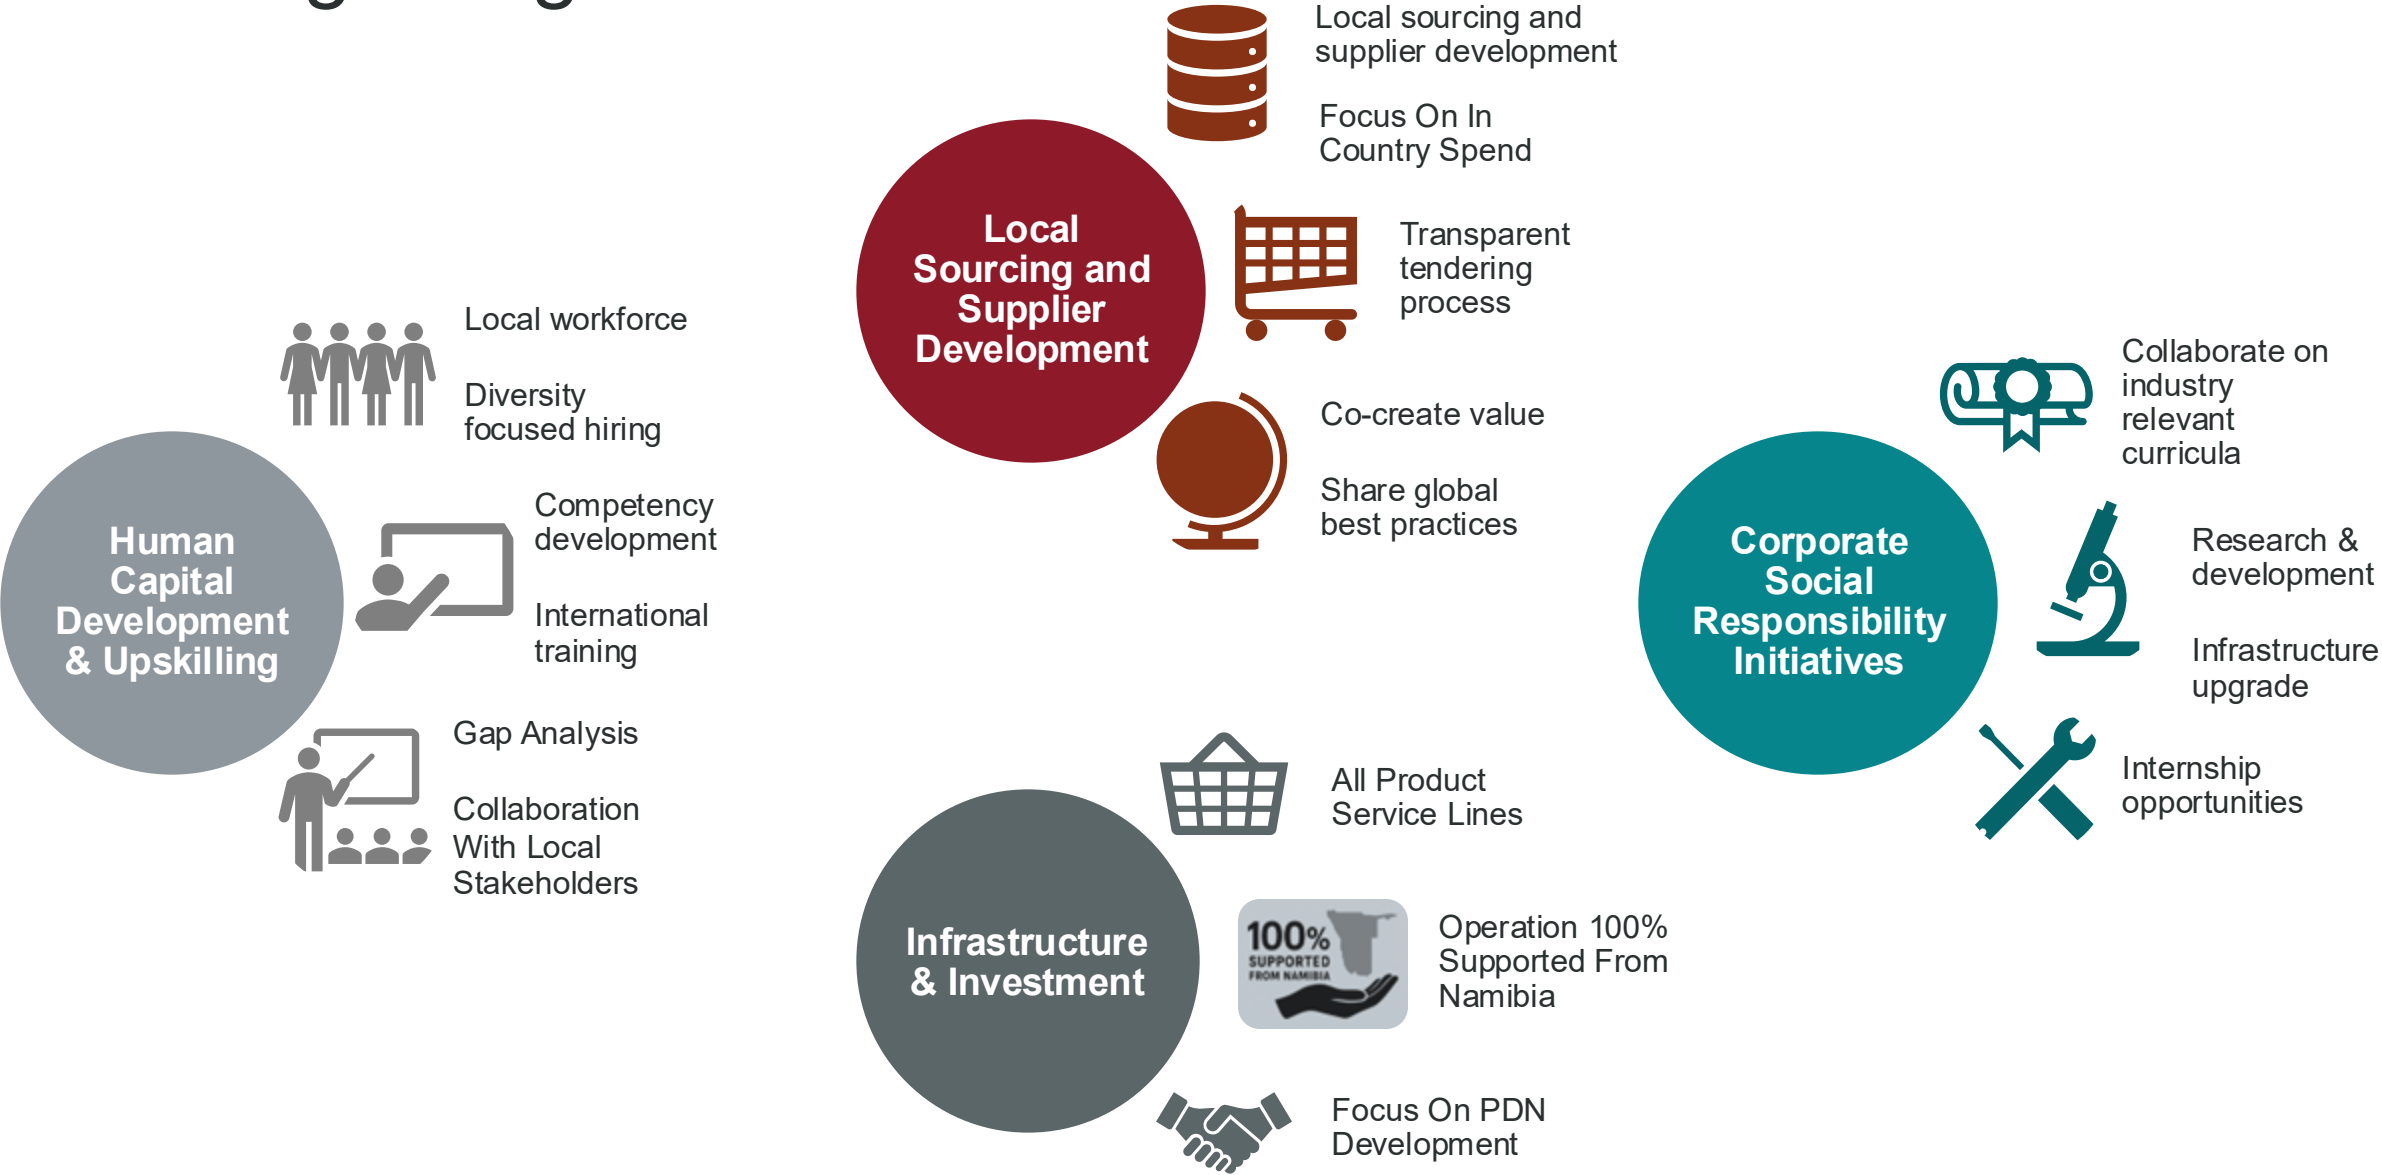

■ Show the Love

“The discoveries...are a promising start to this journey, which will contribute to the foundation we are laying for Namibia’s burgeoning oil and gas industry — one built on knowledge and skills transfer, local capacity building and the upliftment of young Namibians”

Travis Smithard, CEO of Rhino Resources

The Beginning

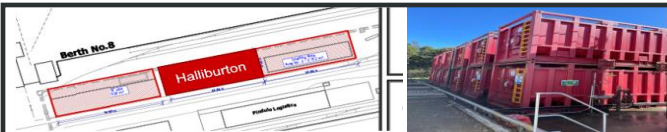

Infrastructure & Investment

Infrastructure
& Investment

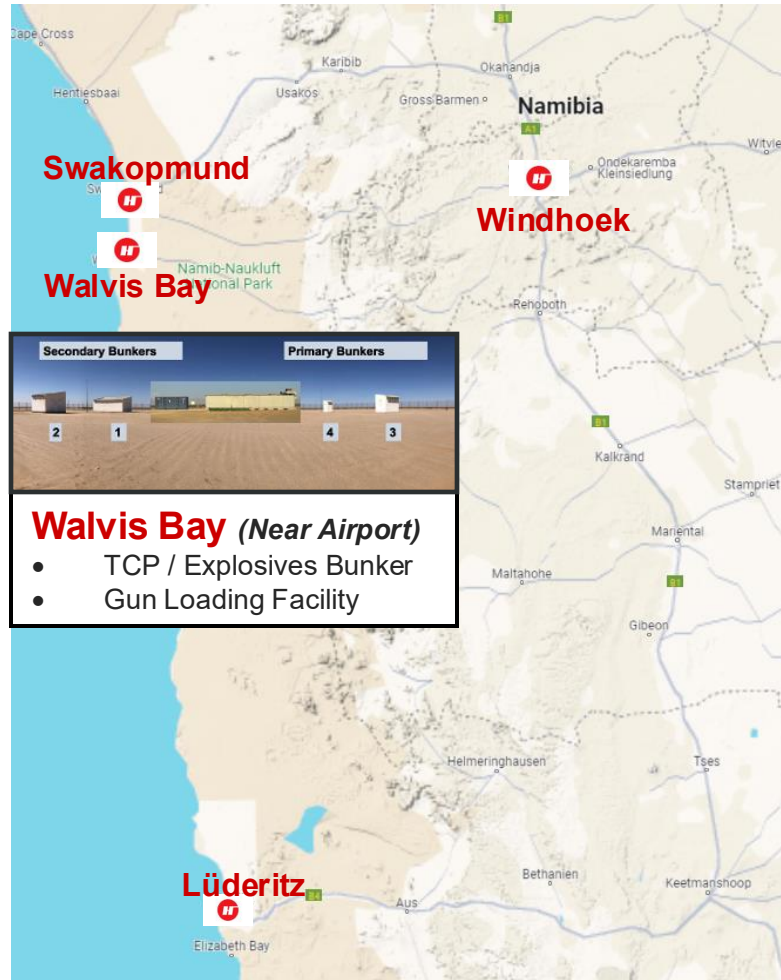

Swakopmund

- Well Testing Facility (SS, SWT)
- Completion / WBCO / CMT Workshop
- DD/LWD RM Facility, RA Bunker
- Drill Bits / Coring
- WH / Lay Down Area
- Workshops Office
- Staff Accommodation

Walvis Bay

- LMP
- WH / Yard / Lay Down Area

Walvis Bay (Near Airport)

- TCP / Explosives Bunker
- Gun Loading Facility

Windhoek

- Main Office
- Staff Accommodation

Lüderitz

- Wireline RM Facility
- WH / Yard / Lay Down Area
- Cementing Bulk Plant & Laboratory
- Staff Accommodation

Infrastructure & Investment

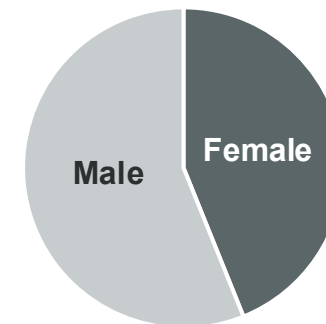

HALLIBURTON

Human Capital Development & Upskilling

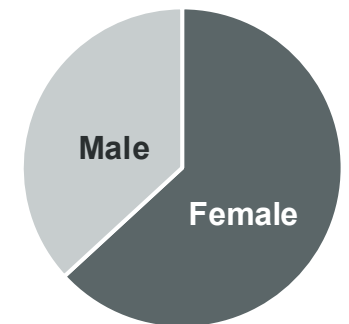

- Publicly advertised all positions (Employment Equity Compliance)
- Collaboration with PETROFUND (Candidate Database)
- Fully onboarded 60 Namibian Employees
- Diversity focused hiring (50% female)
- Regional and Global Training & Utilisation
- Upskilling PDN owned company – 21 Employees

Operations

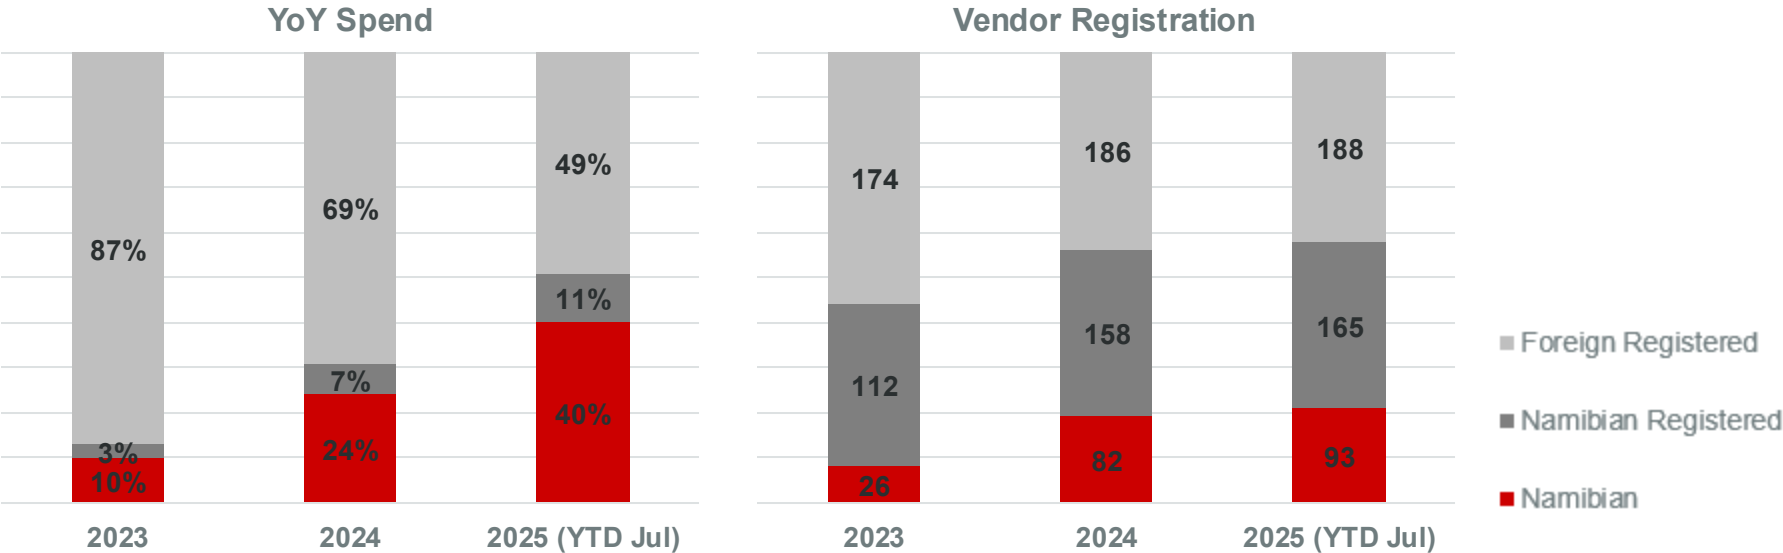

Support

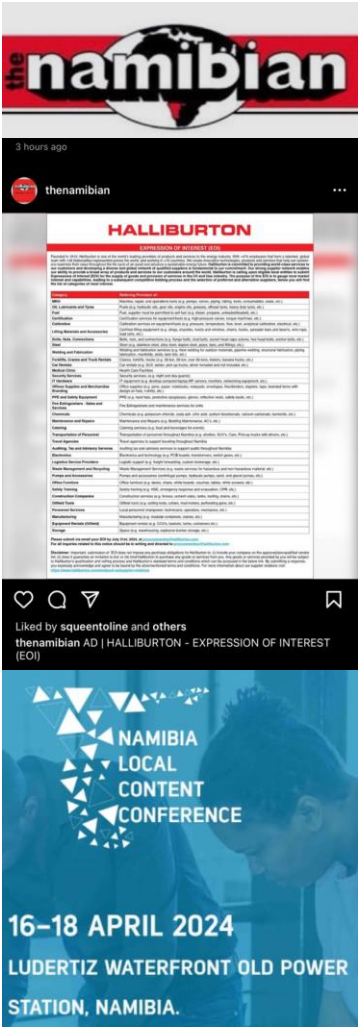

Local Sourcing & Supplier Development

- Public EOI Notifications and Conference Participation
- Suppliers & Spending Statistics

- 2023 – 2024 YoY
 - Grew spend in-country (320%) and with Namibian Owned (329%) suppliers
 - Grew Namibian Owned supplier database (215%)

HALLIBURTON

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Initiatives

CSR
Initiatives

Rhino-Halliburton Technology Centre at UNAM

- Namibia's leading technology centre at University of Namibia's southern campus in Keetmanshoop
- Fitted with high end workstations with dual monitors
- Granted UNAM multi-year licenses to advanced E&P software including, DecisionSpace Petrophysics, DecisionSpace Geosciences, Seismic Analysis 10ep, and OpenWorks
- Complete dataset for Geoscience, Reservoir Modelling, Drilling & Completion

Upgrade of Laboratory at NUST

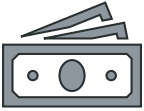

- Placement of Cementing and Fluids equipment in the laboratory for training of students and faculty.
- Provides enhanced capability for research programs, thesis projects, and skills development.

Accelerating E&P Success in Emerging Markets

- Promoting Local Employment

- Encouraging Local Procurement

- Building Local Capacity

- Enhancing Economic Development

- Track Compliance

- Show the Love

THANK YOU

Sana Donald

sana.donald@halliburton.com

Human Capital
Development
& Upskilling

Local
Sourcing and
Supplier
Development

CSR
Initiatives

Infrastructure
& Investment

