

Mrs. Nangula Uaandja

Nangula is the Country Senior Partner of PwC Namibia, has over 18 years' experience in auditing and has served as partner on audits of various financial services institutions, state owned enterprises, energy and utilities as well donor-funded organisations. She has also been involved in non-audit work such as fraud investigation, assisting clients with budgetary processes, the analysis and interpretation of financial statements, presentations on the roles and responsibilities of directors and a host of other relevant topics. In May 2015, Nangula was honoured to lead the team that prepared the voluntary asset disclosures of the President of Namibia, His Excellency, Dr. Hage Geingob and First Lady, Ms. Monica Geingos.

Dr. Frans Cronjé

Frans is a scenario planner and the CEO of the South African Institute of Race Relations (SAIRR). He has presented scenarios about South Africa's long-term economic and political prospects to over 100 corporations, government departments, foreign governments, and political parties. In 2007 he established the Centre for Risk Analysis within the SAIRR. Cronje was educated at St John's College and Wits University and holds a PHD in scenario planning from North West University. Prior to joining the SAIRR he got his real education serving with the South African police, working as a horse-riding instructor and later lumberjack in the United States, and going on a year-long expedition from Cape Town to Cairo.

Honorable Tom Alweendo

Tom K. Alweendo was appointed by the President of the Republic of Namibia as Minister of Economic Planning and Director General of the National Planning Commission with effect from 21 March 2015. He received a BCom degree from Wits in 1985, and an MBA from the University of Wales in 1990. Prior to his cabinet position, he ran the National Planning Commissions from 2010 to 2015, was the Central Bank Governor from 1997 to 2010 and the Deputy Governor from 1993 to 1996, before which he ran the National Housing Enterprise.